IN THE AREA

Hackney Church House is excellently located. You don't need to go far to find everything you need.

GREEN SPACES

1 The Walled Garden - a play area for kids and benches to find solitude. Check out the Windrush Generation Border, "Home". Planted by our garden team as a reminder of home for those who travelled from the Caribbean, leaving their luscious land behind.

COFFEE BREAK

1 The Quarter Kitchen - hidden in our church grounds for all of your coffee drinking needs and serving the 'best Mexican breakfast in Hackney.'

ART

- The Prodigal Son sculpture by Charlie Mackay (author) of The Boy, The Horse, The Fox and The Mole), based on the famous parable of Luke 15. The Prodigal Son can be viewed in Prodigal Square next to Hackney Church House.
- 1 Turner prize-winning Windrush Art Commission by artist Veronica Ryan OBE. The Windrush Art Commission can be viewed at the end of the Narrow Way next to the the St Augustine's Tower.
